

Raytheon

Profiting From Famine and Death in Yemen:

-For 4 years a coalition led by Saudi Arabia and the UAE has been bombing the country of Yemen, routinely striking hospitals, schools, food storage facilities, and water treatment plants. They are using man-made famine as a weapon of war. 14 million people, half the population now lives on the brink of starvation. (Source: New York Times “As Famine Looms in Yemen, Saudi-Led Coalition Redoubles Attacks” 11/6/2018)

-Raytheon is a major arms supplier for Saudi Arabia, and it is estimated that between 2009 and 2015 alone Raytheon delivered $2.5 Billion in weapons to Saudi Arabia like this one, found in the aftermath of a strike on a water drilling site where at least 31 civilians were killed. (Source: Human Rights Watch “Yemen: US-Made Bombs Used in Unlawful Airstrikes” 12/8/2016)

-The war in Yemen, which the United Nations calls “the world’s worst humanitarian crisis,” has caused the death of at least 85,000 children under the age of 5 from starvation. 1 million people have contracted cholera. (Source: Save the Children:Yemen: 85,000 Children May Have Died from Starvation Since Start of War” 11/20/2018)
